WESTERN CLUBS COMING.

THEY WILL BEGIN THEIR LAST SE RIES IN THE EAST TO-MORROW.

At Present It Looks as if the Baltimores Will Win the Pennant, and the Philadel phias Will Finish Well Up Games for the Week-Work of the New Yorks and Brooklyne in Butting and Fielding.

Reginning to-morrow the Western clubs will open their last series of the championship schedule in the Eastern cities. The Clevelands come with such a slight advantage over the Baltimores that the critics are figuring that Hanlon's men will ultimately win the flag. The Pittaburghs are in third place, but it is thought that Mack's men will take a drop. The Chicages and Cincinnatis are well up, and the former, who play strongly away from home, cionatis on their first trip East captured only a

The Philadelphias are regarded just now as dark horses. While it is hardly probable that they will overhaul the leaders, still it would not be at all surprising if they landed in second or third place. The Quakers are hitting the ball very hard and their pitching department is in better shape now than at any time before this season. The Bostons, although they have lost six straight games and are in seventh place, will move up the ladder probably as soon as they be-gin playing at home. The same may be said of the Brooklyns, who always do well against the Western clubs at Eastern Park. The New Yorks, while not very high up in percentage, have an epportunity to climb into the first division if the men will buckle down to hard, conscientious work. They are paid good salaries to play ball to the best of their ability, and if they want to, they can take a much-needed brace in the

This week's games fwill have an important bearing on the standing of the leaders. The Clevelands will play three games with the Washingtons and one with the Philadelphias, while the Baltimores will play five games, three with the Chicagos, one with the Washingtons at home, and one with the Cincinnatis. The New Yorks have what looks like an easy programme They will wind up their series with Brooklyns at Eastern Park to-day.

the Brooklyns at Eastern Park to-day. To-morrow they will meet the St. Louis team at the Polo grounds, and on Wednesday they will entertain the Pittsburghs, On Thursday St. Louis will be here and, possibly, on Friday, which is an open date, as Von der Ahe's team have a postponed game to play off with the local team. On Saturday the reorganized Louis-villes will be the card in Harlem.

At Brooklyn, Foutz's men will play, in addition to to-day's game with the New Yorks, two games with the Pittsburghs and two games with St. Louis. The Hostons play at Philadelphia to-day, and then go to Hoston, for three straight with the Louisvilles, and a battle with the Pittsburghs on Saturday. The Philadelphias will tackle Buck Ewing's Cincinnatis in three games, and will meet the Clevelands on Saturday.

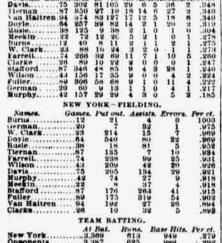

Manager Mack of the Pittsburghs has the honor of having discovered more young successful players this year than any other Lengue manager. In addition to picking up Clingman, Cross, and Genius before the season opened he has secured three new pitchers, all of whom bid fals to be credit, and the process.

ful players this year than any other League manager. In addition to picking up Clingman, Cross, and Genius before the season opened he has secured three new pitchers, all of whom bid falg to be crack-a-jacks. He has in Foreman, who came from Petersburgh, Va., one of the coming pitchers of the country. Young Gardner and Hewett are both very promising. In Stuart, Mack has also landed a fine ball player, who is said to be a second Lange of Chicago. Stuart has jumped into Pittsburgh's short field, and is playing the position for all it is worth.

Davia again leads the New York players at the bat. The ex-manager made six hits in one ame at Philadelphia last week, which increased his average to such an extent that he passed Tiernan and Van Haltreh. Gumbert was only able to head the Brooklyn players for one week. Kennedy improved his figures by eight points. The following is the record of the players of the two clubs up to date:

It will not be necessary for O'Rourke to get any other man for the same night as I believe Walcott will have his hands full in beating the Kid, indeed if he bests him at all. The club offering the best inducements and acceptable to Manager O'Rourke will be accepted by Lavigne."

GOSSIP OF THE RUNNERS. SOMETHING ABOUT THE STARTERS FOR THE $67,000 FUTURITY.

The Race Is Much More Open than It Was a Week Ago, and Hastings, Handspring, Axiom, Hazlet, Requital, and Applegate All Will Have a Big Following-Trials and Gessin About the Candidates-Why the Weights Are So Adjusted-Horapipe and Domino Entered Abroad-The Hanover Yearlings Sought for Mr. Croker-Gravesend's Good Entry List-Notes,

Although the list of probable starters for the Futurity furnished by the Coney Island Jockey Club reaches a total of more than thirty, it is altogether likely that not more than fifteen candidates will go to the post on Saturday next, A number of owners have been feeding themselves upon the idea that they have Futurity material in their stables, but when it comes to the day of the race there will be an awakening, and a smaller field than usual will assemble for the signal which will make somebody $67,000 the richer.

A week ago the Futurity was conceded to be between Handspring and Hastings, but in the intervening time Axiom, Applegate, Requital, Hazlet, and Refugee have come to the front and have a strong following. When Hand-spring went to Saratoga he was conceded to be the best of the Eastern two-year-olds, with the possible exception of Hastings, and, as he had never met the son of Spendthrift, at equal weights, the question of superiority between Hanover's son and Mr. Belmont's $37,000 pur chase was open to doubt. Hastings caught cold, however, and was reported as coughing only a couple of weeks ago. Handspring was said to be in perfect shape, but he did not appear in pub-lic, and there was no way of telling just how good he really was. Now from Gravesend comes the word that Handspring is nothing like as good a colt as he was in the spring, and that Axiom, his stable companion, can beat him doing anything. Those who saw the colt's work no later than two days ago say that he was all strung out in going three-quarters of a mile in 1:17%. This would have only been play for Handspring under ordinary circumstances. Then it was whispered around that Frank McCabe was confident that Axiom would beat the colt on Saturday next.

Will the public have the rare sight of a filly winning such an event as the Futurity? Yorkville Belle was a great two-year-old filly, but she couldn't beat His Highness, Huron, or Dagonet. Perhaps it remains for Axiom to show us that a filly is capable of great things even when meeting the best colts of the year. They are telling a story which illustrates how speedy Axiom is since going to Saratoga. When Hazlet beat her ten days ago at even weights it was the opinion of many of the spectators that Gideon's colt won purely through Griffin's jockeyship, and that Henry could have won with either Hazlet or Axiom. Mr. Gideon will not forget that he had a difference with Mr. Dwyer, and straightway began talking about matching his colt against the filly at five furlongs. This roused the President of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, and he sent a friend to Mr. Gideon with a proposal to race Axiom against Hazlet at five furlongs for any sum from $5,000 to $20,000 a side. and offered to wager an extra $1,000 on every furlong pole. Mr. Gideon wanted to make the natch, but stipulated that the horses should go back 200 yards behind the starter and come running. Naturally, Mr. Dwyer would not listen to this. He said he was running Axiom we furlongs, and not five and a haif furlongs, and was willing to place her in the hands of the tarter and let him send them back as far as he thought would be necessary in order to secure a ust and equitable start. The matter dropped here, but the discussion goes to show forcibly hat Mr. Dwyer has a most formidable team for next Saturday's prize. Mr. Belmont will send two, and perhaps three, candidates to the post, and the fact that Refugee ran third to Silk Gown and Waltzer at Saratoga a few days ago shows that the Exile gelding is fast rounding to, and will be a worthy companion for Hastings. Refugee has never shows in public anything like the speed he possesses when at his best, and Mr. Helmont expects great things of him. Hastings is one of those peculiar coits that will not do his best until roused by the fury of a contest. Like Luke Blackburn, he knows that the work in the morning means nothing, and it is only when whips sing and silk flutters that he will strive to be first at the wire. Jack Joyner has nursed the half brother to Ferrier most tenderly, and it will not be his fault if Hastings is beaten. Margrave will be missed. This colt was good enough to make the rest of the Hiemton string look common, but he was so big and heavy that he used up his legs. More the pity, for he has the carmarks of speed, and was intended by nature to be a grand rate horse. ree ran third to Silk Gown and Waltzer at Sar the Hiemton string look common, but he was so bis and heavy that he used up his legs. More the pity, for he has the earmarks of speed, and was intended by nature to be a grand rate horse.

David Gideon has two sterling performers in Hazlef and Requital. The persistency with which Hyland stuck to his claim that Hazlet was the best coit out last spring shows that the big chestnut coit must have shown something remarkable at Holimele before he was brought out to race. Hyland did not weaken on him until Handspring had beaten him several times, and the fact that Mr. Gideon bought the coit at a high figure shows that, like Keenan, Hazlet is expected to come back and show that he is really fast. Requital is a smart youngster, too, dead game, and possessed of speed far beyond the ordinary Trainers home from Saratoga, as well as close observers who make their living by watching the movements of the horse, say that Requital is the most improved horse at Saratoga. He beat the Californian Crescendo in a gallop, and worked so fast that as good a judge as Frank McCabe thinks he will be looking the winner in the eye when the wire is reached.

John J. McCafferty's trio, Applegate, Wishard, and Jefferson, are doing well. McCafferty keeps his own counsel and says little, but, judging from the way he is manusuring with Applegate, he thinks the chestnut's chances are second to none. Jefferson and Wishard are a pair of shifty geldings, and, while they appear to be outclassed by half a dozen that could be named, their pull in the weights and any little mishap in the race might throw victory in their direction.

McCafferty gave Applegate five furlongs at Shepshead Hay yesterday morning in 1:04. Jeffreson and Wishard went half a milein 50 seconds. Over at Gravesend Frank McCabe asked Handspring and Axiom to breeze a half. Sam Dogett rode Handspring, but the case with which he got into a brawl at Coney Island early yesterday morning. Simm's temper will get him into serious trouble some day.

Matt Hyrnes will probably start two coits in the Dwyer colt. He said yesterday that both were bad bets and that he wished he had them off.

Grannan is full of Henry of Navarre, and regards the great four-year-old as a phenomenon. He saw him work a mile and a furiong at Latoula in 1:52%, the first mile in 1:40, with 12°2 bounds on hie back. The young Kentuckian also said that he had seen Hastings and Floretta work six furiongs together in 1:17°s at Saratoga, the colt with his weight up and only a catch on the filly. The first furiong was in 11% seconds, and Hastings was right there.

A study of the weights for the Futurky is interesting. Applegate, by Huchanan, out of Lougshore, has to carry top weight of 12°2 pounds, which is made up by a penalty of 7 pounds for winning the Great American Stakes of $10.400, and an allowance of 3 pounds on account of his dam not throwing a winner previous to Jan 1, 1893. Handspring, by Hanover, out of My Favorite, has 120 pounds. He gets a 5-pound silowance on both his sire's and dam's side, and 7 pounds papalty for winning the Great Trinl Stakes of $78.00, and had the houble Event had three additional entries he would have had to carry 5 pounds more. Hastings, by Spendthrift out of Cinderella, harely secaped any penalty, as the value of the eweepstakes was $4,525. The Native, by Ponlac out of Soubrette; Haziet by Sensation out of Almy; Nimrod, by Springbok out of Edith Pameraston by St. Baise out of Firma, and Defender, by Rayon d'Or out of Ella T., have all been winners, and are by producing sires out of imp. by Flambeau out of imp. Janet N.. and Formal, by Cayusa out of Prudery. Intermission, by Galopia out of an untried dam. Axiom's weight is fixed at 110 or 112, three pounds each having been taken off for the sex and the untried dam, but as the exact date of the first win of the get of Maxim in Australia is not positively known, the additional two pounds were left open to question. Axiom is by Imp. Maxim out of Touche, Pas. Hamsel, by Kinglike, out of Btonerrop, claims the filly and dam allowance. The official weight for Refugee is given as 110 pounds, which means esiding and sire and dam's allowance. The Secretary of the Coney Island Jockey Club is undoubtedly in error, as Refugee can only claim six pounds allowance, as his dam, Bracken, threw in 1800 Muscovite, by Muscovy, who won a sweepstakes on June 28 at the Coney Island Jockey, Club. The error arises probably from Goodwin's Guide, where the brackets are omitted in the index.

The following claim all the maiden allowance: Margrave by St. Blaise out of Lady Margaret; Terror III., by Sir Modred out of Highlight; Tremargo, by Tremont out of Margo: Mormon, by Sir Modred out of Stella, and Peep O'Day, by Ayrshire out of Sundown.

Those at the bottom are: Wishard, by Bob Miles, out of Thora, who claims filly and maiden allowances, and Radnor, by Salvator, out of Blue Grass, who claims gelding and maiden allowances.

allowances, and Hadnor, by Salvator, out of Blue Grass, who claims gelding and maiden allowances.

The Racing Calendar of Aug. 8 shows that the yearlings by Hanover, bought by M. F. Dwyer from Milton Young, were purchased for Richard Croker. They appear in his name, thirteen of his nominations being made for the Eclipse Stakes of 1808. August Belmont has four nominations in this event. Chas. Littlefield two, Pierre Lorillard nine, and Janies R. Keene one. The Calendar also contains the surprising information that James R. Keene has nominated Hornpipe and Domino for the Campridgeshire, to be run on Oct. 23, and Hornpipe for the long distance handicap, the Czarewitch, to be decided on Oct. 9. Old Banquet II, is also nominated for the Czarewitch. Hornpipe and Domino are still here. The nominations were made by cable. If Mr. Keene has a trip to England for his sterling pair of campaigners in view for the autumn he has kept the news well.

The Hooklyn Jockey Club's programme for the autumn meeting has filled so well that Secretary McIntyre is jubilant over the prospects for a great series of races. The stakes which closed on August 15 have received up to date the following nominations.

LAWN TENNIS.

Newport's Entry List the Largest on Record Canada's Big Tournament.

The entry list for Newport this year is the largest on record, eighty-two players having entered. In the upper half of the draw are Stevens, Hovey, Neel, and Chace. Fischer, Talmage, Davidson, and Lee are the best of the econd-class men. Stevens and Hovey and Chace and Neel seem to be the pairs likely to be in the eight survivors of the third round, Larned is at the bottom of the list and appears the only good man in his quarter of the tournament. Budlong, Ryerson, Millett, and Howland are in the lower middle section. Howland and Millett will meet in the section. Howland will Ryerson and Budlong. Close matches can day's play. It now looks very much like Larned ported illness is serious enough to wipe out the

Another interesting contest will begin on the Poughkeepsie Tennis Club's courts on Aug. 24, when the opening games of the Hudson River Tennis Association's championship tournament will be played. The contest will be open only to members of the fourteen clube of the association. The cup for singles is now held by C. E. Sands, the crack player of the New Hamburg Club, who has won it twice. V. G. Hall also has two legs on the cup, and as both men are expected to enter this year, a lively contest is looked for. The champion in women's singles is Miss Augusta Bradley of the Nyack Country Club. The Poughkeepsis Club holds the women's doubles with the Misses Ferris and the mixed foubles. For the men's doubles championship is held by two army officers, Lieuts. Bracks and Davis of West Point. In all five contests first and runner-upprizes will be offered. There will be a consolation prize only in the singles. The singles champions, Sands and Miss Bradley, will meet the winners of the men's and women's doubles respectively, but the other champions have to play through the contests. The entrance fees are $1.00 each player in all the contests. Entries close on Friday evening, Aug. 23, at 6 o'clock, with R. M. Ferris, John C. Sickley, Norman Wright, Thomas H. Ransom, and William A. Adriance.

FLEETWOOD'S FINE CARD.

ENTRIES FOR NEXT WEEK'S GRAND CIRCUIT TROITING MEETING. All of the Crack Harness Horses to Be

Here—The Two Free-for-all Baces will Beside the Championship Among Tree ters and Pacers—The Week's Programm Although the entry books for the Fleetwood Grand Circuit trotting meeting closed on Aug. 12, the list was not made public until yesterday. It is a mammoth one, nearly 300 horses having been nominated in the fifteen events on the programme, and in a majority of the classes there is quality as well as numerical strength n the fields. Interest among horsemen is of Nurso centred in the two open races, the Champion Purse for pacers and the Round Top Farm Purse for trotters.

With John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen, Robert J., Rubenstein, Mascot, Directly, and Star Pointer o start in the race for pacers on Thursday, it goes without saving that the contest promises o be the feature of this year's campaign so far as the sidewheelers are concerned. While there ave been many great pacing races in the West during the past five years, no such field as this one ever scored for the word. The horse that wins will be the champion of his kind. Many orremen will regret to see that Fidol, 110416. is not among the entries, for the stout, speedy son of Bachman's Idol has shown himself a race norse of the highest type, fit to measure strides son of Bachman's Idol has shown himself a race norse of the highest type, fit to measure strides with Joe Patchen, Robert J., and Gentry. Secretary Hedges tried hard to secure the lowa stallion, but easy money at Galesburg and other Western meetings kept him there.

Scarcely less interesting than the Champion Purse for pacers will be the trotting free-for-sall on Wednesday, in which Agate, Klamath, and Bensetta are to compete for the supremacy, with Fantasy, Dan Cupid, Lesa Wilkes, Dandy Jim, and Nightingale as the outsiders. Huida and Alix will be missed, but the indications are that neither of these great mares is in shape to trot a bruising race at the present time. Alix will be at the meeting, however, and will be driven to beat the track record, 2:00%, made by Nancy Hanks in 1893.

Another fine race is promised in the 2:11 class on Friday, with Aliao, Oro Wilkes, Aunt Delliah, James L., Chester, Colonel Kuser, Geneva, Lightning, Baronet, Psyche, Athanio, and other good ones entered. Cephas, Queechy, Arena, Caprice, Gretcher, Bravado, Merman, Newcastle, and Psyche should insure another brilliant contest in the 2:15 class on Toesday. Monday's card will bring out the 2:10 pacers, and, while some of the lot have seen their best days, there is material for a fast and furious race, with Sterling, Paul, Guinette, Veitello, Whirligg, Elia T., and Moonstone among the prospective starters.

Following is the programme for the week, with a complete list of entries:

Pierre Lorillard After Lisank SARATOGA, Aug. 18.—Pierre Lorillard has been after the three-year-old colt Lissak. Mr. Lorillard was desirous of buying the colt outright, and made a proposition to Col. Jack Chinn's son Philip, who has charge of the stable during his father's absence in Kentucky. The young man forwarded the proposition to his father, and to-day received a reply that Lis-sak was not for sale, which information was conveyed to Mr. Lorillard. The latter affered a large sum for the colt's running qualities for next year with permission to race him in England, and an option to renew the lease if Lissak's form warranted it. Lissak is a black cut by mp. Loyalist imp. Capability. He was imported in utero and was foaled at Lexington.
